

RECORDED COURSES

Recorded courses are ready and available online when you are! Each course provides the option of testing for up to two certificates of completion at no additional charge and provides information compatible with Hague education standards.

Transitions, Developmental Challenges or Just Regular Kid Stuff?

This course addresses topics such as transitioning a child home, sorting out "regular kid stuff" from adoption related concerns and ideas for parenting all of these.

Discipline: Managing Your Child's Bid for Power

Learn parental responses that help with the prevention of power struggles and management techniques for exiting the power struggles we slip into.

Understanding Trauma in Children

"Understanding Trauma in Children" discusses the difference between a potentially traumatic event and actual trauma. The science and symptoms of trauma are presented in a user-friendly manner but most importantly, practical, concrete parenting tools are offered for helping a child resolve trauma.

Talking to Your Child About Adoption

This course takes a look at universal messages all children who were adopted need to hear and gives practical advice on how parents can send these messages in a way that fits their family's unique circumstances.

Race and Culture

Explore the concepts of race and culture as they relate to adoption and foster care. This one hour course, included in the Because They Waited™ education system, discusses topics such as addressing racism, looking at culture in terms of larger culture and sub-cultures, talking with your child about race and culture, white privilege and more...

COUNTRY COURSES

These courses address country or region specific topics such as: medical issues, race and culture issues, the adoption process and much more—all geared toward that country or region.

Because They Waited education system

Helping Pre-Adoptive Parents

The Because They Waited education system is an online, on demand program with modules covering topics pertinent to individuals adopting children internationally or through foster care. Modules present "The Science" in a user friendly format, followed by "The Parenting" which offers concrete parenting tools and finally, "Wrap Up, Review and Resources". The Because They Waited system offers the option of testing online for up to two certificates of completion at no additional charge and provides 10 hours of Hague compatible education.

Helping Seasoned Parents

Because They Waited does more than just help families fulfill necessary requirements prior to adopting. Many seasoned parents also find the system to be an invaluable resource that goes beyond adoption preparation and meets parenting challenges head on.
