FOREVER FAMILIES THROUGH ADOPTION, INC.
ACHIEVES HAGUE ACCREDITATION

Forever Families Through Adoption, Inc. has received notification that it has achieved Hague Accreditation through the Council on Accreditation (COA) as authorized by the U.S. Department of State, according to an announcement made to Joy Goldstein, Executive Director of the organization, which is located at 62 Bowman Ave., Rye Brook, NY 10573, United States.

Hague Accreditation attests that Forever Families Through Adoption, Inc. is in substantial compliance with the Hague Convention Accreditation Standards. Forever Families Through Adoption, Inc. Hague Accreditation Expiration Date is 6/3/2013.

The Hague Convention is an international treaty created to ensure that intercountry adoptions are in the best interests of children and to prevent abduction, exploitation, sale, or trafficking of children. In 1994 the United States signed this treaty and agreed to develop regulations and a monitoring process for adoption service providers in the U.S. that worked with agencies in countries that signed onto the Convention. For more information about the Hague Convention, including a full list of participating countries, please visit the Hague Conference on Private International Law's website at www.hcch.net.

Congress passed The Intercountry Adoption Act (IAA) in October 2000, which serves as the implementing legislation for the United States. The IAA names the U.S. Department of State (State Department) as the Central Authority for the United States and the federal agency responsible for implementing the Convention. The IAA requires agencies and persons providing adoption services in cases involving Convention countries to be accredited or approved. In July, 2006 the U.S. Department of State named COA as the only national accreditor for adoption service providers under the Hague Convention.
